Urged By Judge Park. Governor Says, "Every Man In Georgia Must Stand Equal At Her Bar Of Justice." Must Wipe Out Every Vestige Of The Blot.

COTTONTON, Ga., April 12.—One of the most remarkable criminal trials in the history of Georgia has been opened by the conviction of the defendant.

A jury composed of twelve good representatives who know nothing about the case, but who are sympathetic to the defense, found the defendant, being farmers, have convicted a white man as a charge of crimes committed under the most unusual and revolting circumstances.

The defendant, John S. Williams, 45, was indicted for the murder of his son, Cheevered of murdering one Negro, while eleven bodies were found on his farm in Jasper and he was held at least the negroes were killed and their bodies thrown into a pond.

Governor Satisfied
"The result of the trial," said Governor E. M. Davis, "not only has it had justice, it would be for the sake of justice and the good name of our state. It was also what I had hoped for. I am satisfied that every good citizen could receive a fair expression."

Judge Nathaniel Fletcher Brand, presiding over the trial of Newton county did splendidly what every good Georgia wanted to see done. The great Williams the fair and impartial trial of his son, Cheevered. They glorified alike all preachers and any tendency to be sentimental, in the trial.

The trial has exposed the fact that every man in Georgia must stand equal at her bar of justice. I could not have asked for anything more if I should have to help them. I shall continue to hold it and do everything to see that investigation continues.

"In anywhere," Governor Dorsey said, "men have been asking what Georgia means to do about such things. This superb trial of the Jasper case has shown the meaning, and the grand jury which began its work in Macon last Monday, are showing Georgia what to do.

Never Considered Amnestial
The very few who considered the possibility of acquitting Williams, it was learned from the defense, were not men of the moment. And from the moment they entered their rooms for deliberation, they promised each other that they would not consider any defense to reach an agreement.

"We struggled and wrangled, so hard, and then, after much discussion, we came to the conclusion that there was no way out but to let him go," said one of the defense lawyers. "That I couldn't even guess how many beliefs we took. The whole difference was about whether we ought to break his neck."

Right for Hanging
The defense was eight for hanging and four for imprisonment. It was learned from the defense, however, that the two who voted for life, and from the moment they entered their rooms for deliberation, they promised each other that they would not consider any defense to reach an agreement.

"We struggled and wrangled, so hard, and then, after much discussion, we came to the conclusion that there was no way out but to let him go," said one of the defense lawyers. "That I couldn't even guess how many beliefs we took. The whole difference was about whether we ought to break his neck."

Harvard Professor In Book
Proves That The Negroes
Sailed Here First. Were Here Before Christopher
Columbus Was Born

BOSTON, Mass.—Who discovered America?

Not on your life. That is old stuff and someone founded on myth and imagination. So says Professor Leo Wiener, who has written a book on "Negro Languages in Harvard University, and he gives his proofs in a new book "Africa and the Discovery of America."

According to Professor Wiener, black men from the Guinea and Congo sailed across the Atlantic Ocean reaching a continent in the West and returning home again after 1500 A.D. before Christopher Columbus was born.

Harvards are some of the proofs presented, which have set Boston and Harvard University on the ears, the author of the book, Dr. Wiener, is an authority on the history of civilization and has an international reputation.

He points out that in Columbus' account of his voyage to America, Columbus said he had heard of Africans reaching a continent in the West and returning home again after 1500 A.D. before Christopher Columbus was born.

It is a historical fact that in 1503 Negroes in large numbers were brought to the Americas to work in tobacco.

Even the wretched belt, tobacco, was thought of Indian origin. I have found an African product and product of India. It was taught Indians by the Africans.

Tobacco, Professor Wiener adds, was in sweet potato vines, manioc and cassava were brought here.

OOD MUSICAL SHOW AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON

Billy Mack and his Merry Makers have a show this week that is an improvement on last week's offering. The program is in two parts. The first part includes a musical with main attractions. It is quite musical and includes the usual jokes and lively dancing. The chorus work is conspicuous, harmonies being well sustained. Features are "That Thing Called Love," "Margie," "Sweet Pastry," and "Mamie." Mack and Buckner are the main makers.

Buckner gets the interim with a line of talk that creates much laughter.

The closing act is "humorous concoction called "Lightning Change Artist"; it's mostly a burlesque得意。 Some new numbers and specialties are introduced, including an Old Plantation Revue. The Jazz Band is a big feature in the show. The engagement will close Sunday night.

• MCGARR & DEGASTON'S RAG TIME STEPPERS NEXT

Jules McGarr and Gallie DeGaston will come to The Booker Washington next week with their "Ragtime Steppers." This is one of the nifties shows on the road. It is noted for acrobatic dancing, good poking gits and catching. "Rehearsal" is a St. Louis product and has a big following here.

Misses Pease and Johnson, the Jazz Queens at the Manhattan Cafe and Dance Parlor, announced that their program of songs and dances for coming week will include "If You Don't Want Me," Blues, "Do You Ever Think of Me?" There's A Guy on the Lookout for Every Girl That's on the Square."

AT THE MOVIES

MANY FEATURES AT THE STAR

The program at The Star Theatre during the coming week in one of the best ever presented in the city. On Saturday, "Woman's Man," and on Sunday, "Heart of the West" will be the features. Monday, Emily Stevens in "The Place of Honeymoons." It is a vivid love drama that grips the heart and stirs the emotions of young and old alike.

BEST TALKIE

On Tuesday, a special Matinee will be given for the benefit of St. Paul Conference Claim. The program will include a matinee in the afternoon, two-part Western, "A Good Comedy," and the 3rd episode of "Double Adventure."

"The Lure" will be presented on Thursday. The plot is so familiar as to require no detailed synopsis here. However, Carlisle is influenced by France, loses Carlisle to another man, deserts him and her son to go with Lewis, and returns when abandoned by him to die in his deathbed arms. Is there such a man as this who can charm with a freshness that argues well for a full house next Thursday?

AT THE OLYMPIA

Glads Blackwell in "The Sage Hen," on Sunday; Judy Carman in "Silver Linings," on Monday; William Russell in "Iron Rider," Tuesday; "Hitched Brides," Wednesday; "The Ambition," Thursday, and "Mad Marriage," Friday are leading features at The Olympia Theatre for the coming week.

"FOOL'S GOLD" AT CASINO

The Casino Theatre will present Mitchell Lewis and Florence Turner in "Fool's Gold" this Sunday. It is a superb production, it is playing the old stage. The Fool and Alice, however, are soon parted. "Jungle Child," Monday, "Dice of Destiny," Tuesday, and "Something Different," Wednesday, are other features of the week.

"BARE KNUCKLES" AT LINCOLN
William Russell in "Bare Knuckles" will feature at The Lincoln Theatre, April 18. The picture contains some intensely dramatic situations which include a dangerous long fall down the river, a hard climb up the mountain, and an immense grass elevator. The subtitles are said to be delightful, the quiet scenes between the actors are scenes of the mountain beauty, rustic scenes, etc.

The Sunday feature will be "Lying Lips." In this story of women of the world, you will see the various chapters of humanity. You will see things that you have never seen before. You'll be thrilled and amazed over the various scenes. The picture includes spectacular scenes seldom equalled now by the powers of the moving screen.

Musician, pianist, and James Campbell, violinist, are furnishing the music at this theatre.

"ROAD DEMON" AT MOVIE

Tony Mai will be seen in the daring and revealing scenes in "The Road Demon," at The Movie Theatre this Sunday. Charlie Chaplin in "Behind The Scenes" will be another attraction. Both of these will be shown with special subjects.

AMUSEMENTS—SPORT

and Tuesday. It is a story that has kept its popularity for fifty years and is now being presented in book and saw it as a play. It has survived not only for its dramatic interest, its sympathetic and great nature, but also for the way it has been associated with it, but primarily because of its wholesomeness. Only what is straightforward and clean can survive the test of time—especially in this country where the lurid and the lewd is but a matter of the moment.

On Wednesday and Thursday, the feature will be "Nobody's Girl." It is the story of a baby saved from a shipwreck by a crew member. She is brought up in the care of the man who found her, until the jealousy of the wife of one of the men causes her to fear for her life. She becomes a nurse and falls in love with an older man. Then she reveals the work of the smugglers and incidentally becomes somebody's sweetheart.

BUCK JONES AT COMET

Buck Jones, the clever cowboy actor, will be at the Comet Theatre Sunday in "The One Man Trail." This story revolves around the eloquence of Buck's sister in the play. Buck follows his brother, who has lost on the way, and meets with some thrilling and humorous incidents and accidents. Buck and his horse are the stars of some scenes, and talented in many scenes. The cowboys also give an exhibition as some "men rough" stuff in a farewell send-off.

Another big special at the theatre will be William S. Hart in "O'Malley of the Mounted." He is the real-life hero of the silent photoplay. Mr. Hart is seen as a member of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police—that famous mounted police whose long history has been a source of terror to the lawless characters of the Canadian frontier, because of its unfailing rule, never is quiet until the last captured and when they are captured after.

Sent forth to capture a murderer, he finds the culprit quite ready to find the man he seeks, the brother of a woman he loves to love. He resigns rather than arrest the young man who he believes has justifiably killed a man he has justifiably killed a murderer.

AT THE PENDLETON

Hobart Bosworth in "Pendleton the Surface" will be at the Pendleton Theatre this Saturday and Sunday.

The hero is a stalwart Texan. Encountering a band of outlaws, not only risks death to save people trapped in the ocean depths—but also courageously saves his son from drowning at the same time. Hobart Bosworth and the stinking of the sea, while all the time he is determined to rescue a submarine grounded on the ocean bed; a kraken cabaret invaded by the old diver and his mate; the comicalities of the sea; her evil compatriotes—these are some of the thrills.

On Monday and Tuesday, Mildred Harris will be in "The Woman In His House." It is the story of a neglected wife, a too busy and ambitious husband, an old maid mother and a baby. How mother loves triumphs where science fails and strengthens when the crooked limbs of the child to reveal in a touching story.

Barbaric America

This is the likeness of Alexander Johnson who bears the marks of the Ku Klux Klan which operates out of Dallas, Texas.

Ordinarily, if perchance a man was seen going down the street of a civilized country with some mysterious brand upon his forehead, spectators would follow him a country block, declaring all the while that he was a heathen in hand. One's mind would be upon the jungles of Africa. The heathen nation would be foremost in one's mind. But, dear reader, your mind may rest when you think of Texas—right here in America, right here where the boast of civilization is proclaimed “upon the heathen.”

This organization known as the Ku Klux Klan is made up of that unscrupulous class whose very existence is contempt of law. Then why should such an organization exist? Has crime against the peace and dignity of the State become so great that a gang of outlaws must be called in to uphold the laws?

We are told that the Ku Klux Klan is a licensed organization in several states in this country. God forbid that any state in the United States should have a set of officers so “little,” so one-sided, so corrupt, so cowardly, that they will turn over to a band of nitriders, those sacred trusts that the people have given them. It is nothing less than a surrender to mob violence for any state to countenance any such devilry.

The marks upon the forehead of the subject of this discussion is a disgrace to any heathenland, and a tragedy upon any civilized country.

It will be proper here to mention the outrage for which this extraordinary punishment was inflicted. It is charged that Johnson, a bell boy at a hotel, had been seen in the room of the Negro guest. Being seen in the room with the guest he was arrested. The guest failing to acknowledge any wrongdoing with Johnson, a charge of vagrancy was placed against him. He being employed at the hotel at the time of the vagrancy charge was automatically dropped. Then came the Ku Klux Klan with its dirty work.

It has been said that the regular constituted (?) officers of the law failed to find any one guilty of participating in the branding of Johnson. If the constituted authorities of a state are so weak or so devoid of character, that they have failed reluctantly to protect citizens or to punish lawbreakers, then it is the duty of Congress of the United States to take the case in hand.

Harding's Message

We have read and reread that portion of President Harding's message which refers to lynchings and the Reconstruction. And while it was somewhat disappointing to us, yet he said enough to be interpreted as meaning that all of our expectations must be fully met.

He said the Southern ought to weep over the stain of barbariclynchings from the balances of a free and orderly representative democracy. Of course, we expected this subject to be covered with a recognition, which was not. The reason why, the President, himself can best tell.

In approaching the subject, it seemed that President Harding was fearful and was feeling his way, and found opportunity only in “some what related to the foregoing” to mention lynchings.

It may be that we expected too much on this subject in the President's message. We believe that the Race problem is the greatest domestic problem with which the nation has to deal. Surely we thought that President Harding was fully acquainted with the condition of affairs. Yet we are loathe to believe that he lacked in courage and backbone to tackle such a problem at the beginning of his first congress. Not that we expected a long ceremony on the subject, but we did expect some definite statement at this time.

However, inasmuch as we believe President Harding to be right at heart and in spirit, we shall wait further interpretation of that part of his message as refers to lynching and the Race problem before we shall condemn him; but, in the meanwhile, we are disappointed.

Schmoll For Postmaster

In considering the appointment of a Postmaster for St. Louis, President Warren G. Harding will do well to consider Hon. John Schmoll for the place.

We do not make this statement because we always agree with Mr. Schmoll politically (we do not) but because we believe that he is better fitted for the place than any of the local party men who may be aspirants. He is a business man of the community of long standing and a man of unusual integrity.

We do not know the man in local politics who has contributed as much to the success of the Republican party of the City and State as he. Always a hard worker, and one who enjoys the game. He was the original Harding man amongst the Missouri delegation, at the National convention, so we are informed, and is a loyal Republican.

We believe his sense of justice and fairplay makes him big enough for the office, and believe that President Harding will make no mistake in appointing Mr. Schmoll.

Phil Brown Gets A Job

Through a news item in these columns a short while ago, it was stated that while the men and women of the Race who had gathered at the Nation's Capital, were busily trying to pass over a program in the interest of the Race, Phil Brown, erstwhile of Kentucky, but now of Chicago-Washington, was blind as a bat to everything but a job. Phil believes in the doctrine that it is no harm to beg when one is hungry. So he has landed a job, it is said, by undermoderating another man of his race, whom it was supposed he was supporting.

But, as the late Booker T. Washington said, “It is hard for an empty sack to stand upright.”

Had Dr. Hayes asked us about Phil Brown we would have told him that Phil was very unscrupulous when it comes to telling lies. We believe he would look Jesus Christ in the eye and tell a lie if he thought it would help him to get a political job; and take changes on his word.

AN APPRECIATION

The local Post of the American Legion wishes to express their appreciation to the citizens for their hearty response by assisting at the patriotic services at the funeral of Private Jake Linder last Sunday. Special mention is made of Mr. A. E. Malone and his committee.

Walter Lowe, Louis Cheif, Ben Mosby, Emmett Brown.

LINDER'S BODY
INCLUDED IN THE
CITY SERVICES

The body of Jake Linder was taken in the funeral services, under the City's auspices, on Saturday, April 2. His flag draped casket was placed on a caisson drawn by six active half-horses. Officers of the army, members of The American Legion and mourners in automobiles were in attendance. The service was most impressively carried out.

Attorney Clegg, who delivered the speech at the funeral, said in the closing: “They laid him to rest, his brilliant remarks said: ‘They lay him to rest with a smile on his face, for he was a good soldier.’

PRESIDENT HARDING ORDERS INVESTIGATION OF WAR RISK

Expected That Startling Information Will Reveal Shameful And Unbelievable Mistreatment Of Negro Soldiers Under The Wilson Administration. Complaints Of Many Ex-soldiers Will Be Heard

Associated Negro Press

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Starting information will be revealed in the War Risk investigation asked for by President Harding, General Chas. G. Davis, former Secretary of War and Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt is one of the members. The Commission is now sitting in Washington, and during its sessions will be able to hear the testimony of men in that department, under the Wilson administration suffered shameful and unbelievable treatment.

One of the Negro officers who served in the War Risk Department, Lieut. J. Whiting Clifford, has gathered a fund of data on this subject, and he will offer it to the Commission.

In an exclusive interview for the Associated Negro Press, Clifford said because my petitions for those suffering men were practically ignored I resigned from the department some time ago. The people will be aroused to see what they have done. What those boys are going through.

"What we need is close, sympathetic contact with all forces of soldiers. There are thousands of opportunities to be seized that should not be lost. We do not know anything about.

Theodore P. Haller, Ark.: "I have waited patiently to hear from my medical report but it seems that no one in this camp will write or send in our names to the Red Cross. We are told that we will write to the Bureau for the white boys but not for me."

J. E. Davis, V. M. C. A. Secretary, Marshall, Tex.: "We are in other states but may I say to you that hundreds of colored people hereabouts in the State of Texas are being robbed, cheated of their wages and the colored people have employed one of the oldest Criminal Lawyers in the state to defend Marshall."

George Duray of Georgia has been extremely active from the very first in pushing the case against those responsible for this awful crime. Not only so but he says there are at least 100 Negroes here who have been victimized from this awful system. One or two employed at the State Capitol building and certain of the officials have interceded to prevent their being arrested.

Not only so but he says there are at least 100 Negroes here who have been victimized from this awful system. He also says after most of the communities in Georgia have driven away their farm labor and driven their "farm loans" they will have an opportunity to sit down and think over what they paid to pay debts.

There are scores and scores of cases similar to these, many of them unprintable in their squalor debauchery, debasing and exposing. It appears that thousands of disabled colored Americans have suffered untold agony.

Local Justices are said to be reaping a rich harvest as a result of the investigation.

BIRMINGHAM BASE BALL ASS'N OPENS
PARK TO NEGRO CLUB

The Associated Negro Press

The fight that was brought about by white racists over Birmingham's Southern League club of the Negroes, has been settled. The Birmingham white baseball club of the Southern League plays game as always and when Tracy W. D. Mullins of the Birmingham club gave out a statement to the white press informing them that Frank Purvis' famous black Purvis would play in the park this season, some were angry, people who were not for the park, and the park out performed for the purpose of replacing the Negroes, began from playing on the grounds, that they were not allowed to do so. The decision came like a thunderbolt to those who were fighting the Negroes and the public in kind to those that stood before and the players of the position are not easily satisfied.

Atlanta Black Crackers Shut Out Foster's Giants

By Associated Negro Press
ATLANTA, Ga., April 18.—After game series in Robt. Peeler's American Giants of the N. L. at Tuckahoe, Match 18, the Atlanta Black Crackers were beaten by Foster's Giants, 10-0. In a series of 4 to 10, the Atlanta Black Crackers came back and won one game, but lost the other three. The last game of the series was between the Atlanta Black Crackers and the New Orleans Black Panthers, who were returning from the time of their 10-0. This was out of four games in two years, the Atlanta Black Crackers being the ones that were winning and the New Orleans Black Panthers being the ones that were losing.

With the series very round by a big margin, it was the opinion of the New Orleans lad spars his opponent, and if it was the opinion of the Atlanta Black Jack was doomed to submerge. The real wonder is how the Denver man stood up under what he did, and the Atlanta Black Crackers often with terrific punches that seemed to have enough power in them to knock any man out of the ring.

The Atlanta Black Crackers had a real header, this year in the Champs won the first and lost the second to the Atlantians. It was the first time in 19 years last September that a South team had defeated the American Giants. Wednesday, March 30th, marks the first time in the history of the Negro National pastime that a Southern team has registered a shutout against the Champs.

The Atlanta Black Crackers, in the semifinal Lawrence Lawton and Benny Hall traveled eight rounds in spirited combat. Hall got the best of the fight, but failed to win the verdict by a small margin. Lawrence won the first, second, seventh and eighth rounds, and Hall the fourth, fifth and sixth, with the others even. The boys are featherweights.

The first bout resulted in a knock-out, but the second bout, the boys are lightweightweights.

In the second bout Kid Dusty outdistanced the Stars, but the third fight, a right-round bout, fell of hard hitting. They weighed in at 105 pounds.
